

Contents

Acknowledgments	v
Acronyms and Abbreviations	xi
Glossary	xiii
List of Tables and Figures	xv
1 Environmental Awareness in Vietnam – An Introduction	1
2 Human-Nature Relations: The Current State of Research	9
2.1 Research about Human-Nature Relations	10
Environmental Sociology	11
Environmental Awareness	14
Environmental Attitudes and Values	17
Environmental Knowledge	27
2.2 Human-Nature Relations in the Global South	31
2.3 A Framework for Analysis	37
3 Applying Research about Environmental Awareness in Rural Vietnam	43
3.1 A Qualitative Research Approach	43
3.2 Doing Qualitative Research in Vietnam	51
3.3 The Interview Partners	56
4 State and People in Vietnam	63
4.1 Transformation from Central Planning to Market Economy	64
Introducing Renovation Policies	65
Impact of Reforms on Livelihoods – Vietnam Today	70
4.2 Living in the Peri-urban Realm	74
A Wealthy Province	76

	As Cities Grow, the Rural Mixes with the Urban	78
	4.3 Why a Peri-urban Research Site?	91
5	The Natural Environment and its Conceptions	93
	5.1 The Natural Environment of Vietnam	94
	Global Threats to the Environment	95
	Homemade Problems	96
	Environmental Policies	99
	5.2 The Natural Environment at the Research Site	103
	Climate Change and the Lack of Awareness	104
	Pollution and Water Levels	108
	Actors and Agendas	111
	5.3 The Central Phenomenon: Awareness of Change	115
	Changes are Taking Place	117
	No Changes Are Taking Place	119
	Is Change Negative or Not?	120
	5.4 Contesting Realities: Environmental Change and Problems	122
6	Society and Nature	125
	6.1 Extending the Social to the Natural	125
	Self-creation and Age	127
	Anthropocentric Views of Nature	133
	6.2 Village, City and Nature	140
	The Idyllic Rural	141
	The Rural as a Third Space	148
	6.3 Defining Nature – Defining the Rural	151
7	Everyday Knowledge of Nature in Times of Change	153
	7.1 Knowing about the Natural Environment	154
	Social Representations	156
	When the Population Grows and Trees Are Lacking	159

7.2 Is There an Awareness of Risk?	168
Knowing or Not-knowing about Risk	169
Expectations for the Future	173
7.3 Environmental Change, Knowledge and Risk	176
8 Environmental Attitudes, Politics and Worldviews	179
8.1 Responsibilities – Maneuvering in a Single-party State	180
The Individuals’ Responsibility	180
The Community’s Responsibility	182
The Authorities’ Responsibility	185
8.2 Protecting the Natural Environment – What Can Be Done?	188
Who Can Do What?	188
Attitudes and Behavior	191
8.3 An Ecological Worldview in Peri-urban Vietnam?	194
8.4 Attitudes as a Result of the Context	201
9 Bringing the Threads Together	203
9.1 Putting the Individual at the Center – Three Case Studies	203
Climate Change and Health (Ms. Lý)	204
Protecting the Livelihood (Ms. Bùi)	209
Looking at the Bigger Picture (Mr. Huỳnh)	213
9.2 Comparing Cases – Developing a Theory	217
10 Environmental Awareness in Vietnam – A Conclusion	221
References	227